Quayle Action

This Quayle action is response to the amendments filed on January 19, 2007. Claims 1-48 are allowed in view of the reasons below. Applicant is requested to contact the Examiner at his or her earliest convenience so that appropriate language can be crafted to address the objection below without raising new matter issues. The language can be added by Examiner's amendment if Applicant wishes. This application is in condition for allowance except for the following formal matters outlined in the objection to the specification below.

Specification

The specification is objected to as failing to provide proper antecedent basis for the claimed subject matter. See 37 CFR 1.75(d)(1) and MPEP § 608.01(o). Correction of the following is required: Clear support or antecedent basis is not found in the specification for all of the claimed subject matter. In particular the specification fails to provide clear support or antecedent basis for the newly added limitation requiring the reliable datagram service to be connectionless from the perspective of the AIs. Support certainly does exist in the specification for this limitation (see inter alia, Applicant's specification pg 9, lines 3-21) however this support is not entirely clear. Appropriate correction is required.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1-48, as filed on January 19, 2007, are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The prior art of record failed to disclose a reliable datagram service that provides communications between one application interface and multiple application interfaces (or vice versa) wherein the service is connectionless from perspective of the AIs and multiple application interfaces can utilize a particular SDR resource. Such a scheme is contrary to known systems where the application interface is typically aware of the connection (e.g. the widely known TCP/IP protocol) or other systems where the application interface is not aware of a connection however reliable service is not provided (e.g. traditional datagram multicasting). Furthermore the prior systems typically requiring a one to one application interface connection scheme in order to provide reliable datagram service, as opposed to the claimed invention where many application interfaces may communicate reliably over a single connection.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Prosecution on the merits is closed in accordance with the practice under Ex parte Quayle, 1935 C.D. 11, 453 O.G. 213.

A shortened statutory period for reply to this action is set to expire TWO MONTHS from the mailing date of this letter.
